

DALLAS FIRE-RESCUE

Collaboration	Purpose	Planning	Execution	Scenarios	Live
---------------	---------	----------	-----------	-----------	------

March 3, 2008

Collaboration

Purpose

Planning

Execution

Scenarios

Live

Collaboration

Purpose

Planning

Execution

Scenarios

Live

- To give you a taste of the fire service
- To spend a hands-on day as a first responder
- To expose you to the complex issues of the fire service like staffing, adequate equipment, and presumptive health

Collaboration

Purpose

Planning

Execution

Scenarios

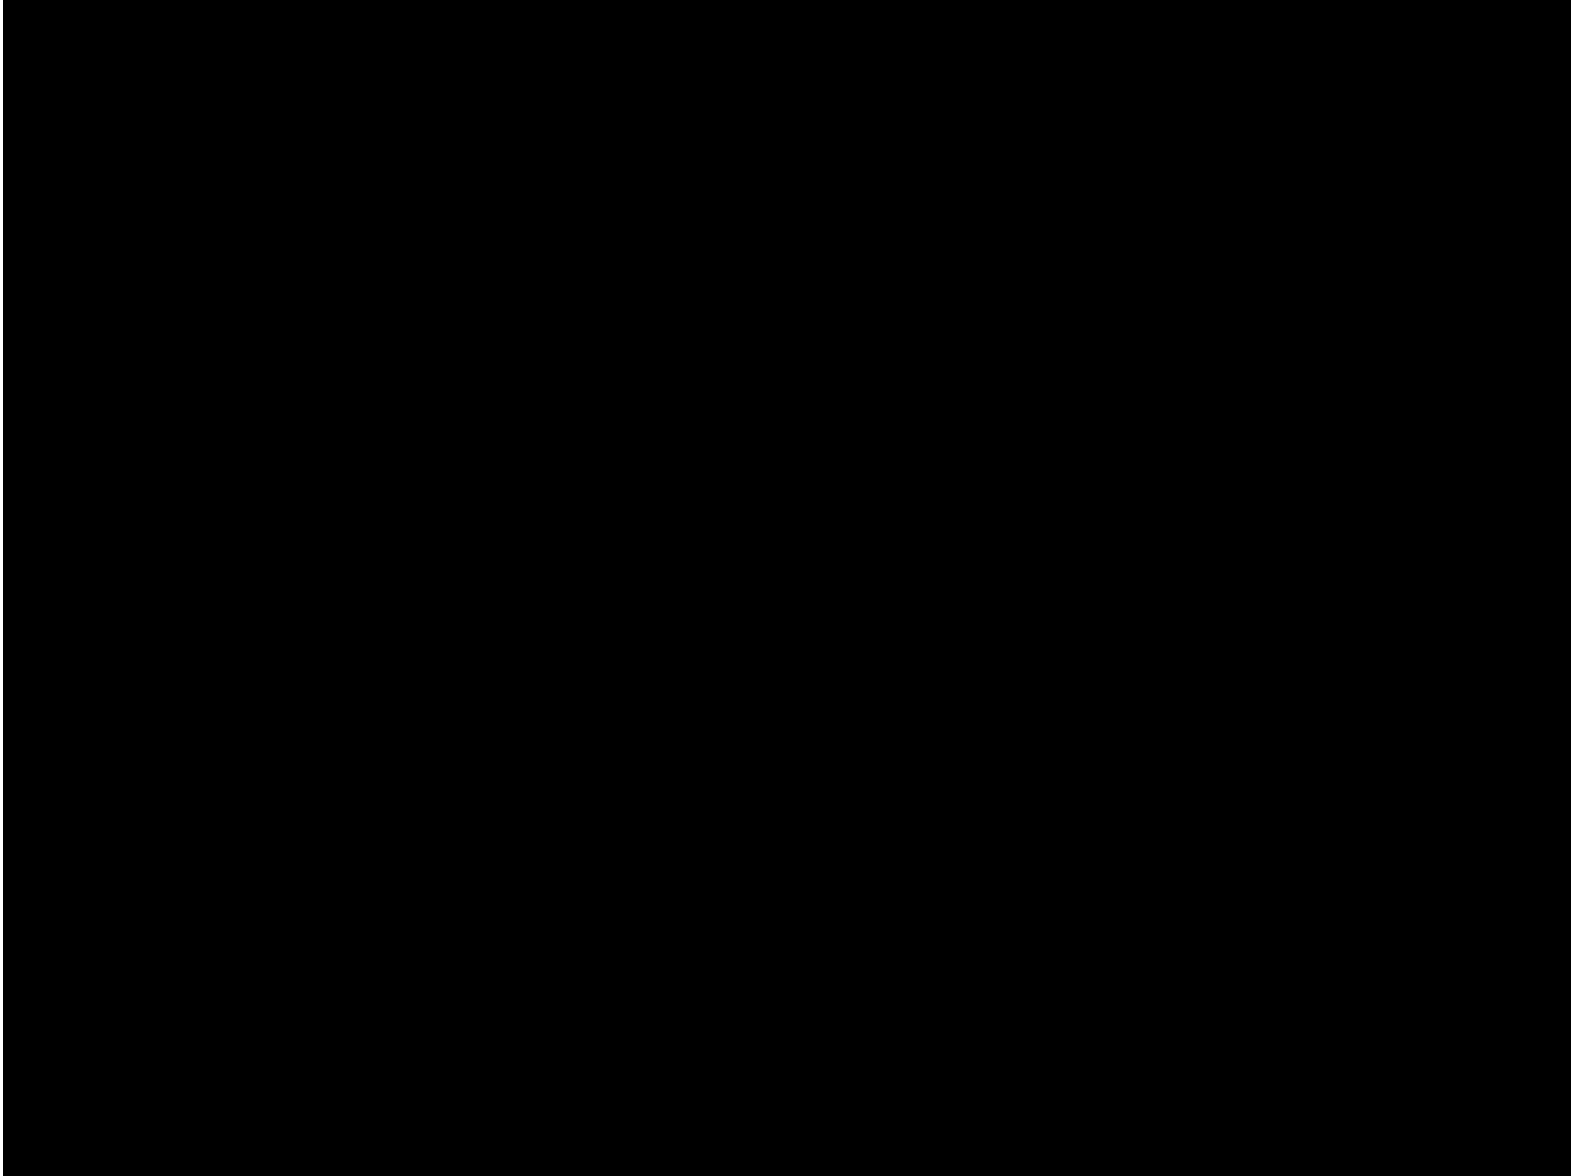

Live

Saturday, April 5, 2008

(Inclement weather date: Saturday, April 26, 2008)

- Small groups
- Circuit rotation
- Each scenario will last approximately 40 minutes
- Twenty (20) minute break for rest and rotation

Fire Ops 101 Local Media Coverage . . .

Collaboration

Purpose

Planning

Execution

Scenarios

Live

- Staged Scenarios
- A balance between the reality of the job and your safety
- Extremely controlled environment
- Direct hands-on participation

Collaboration

Purpose

Planning

Execution

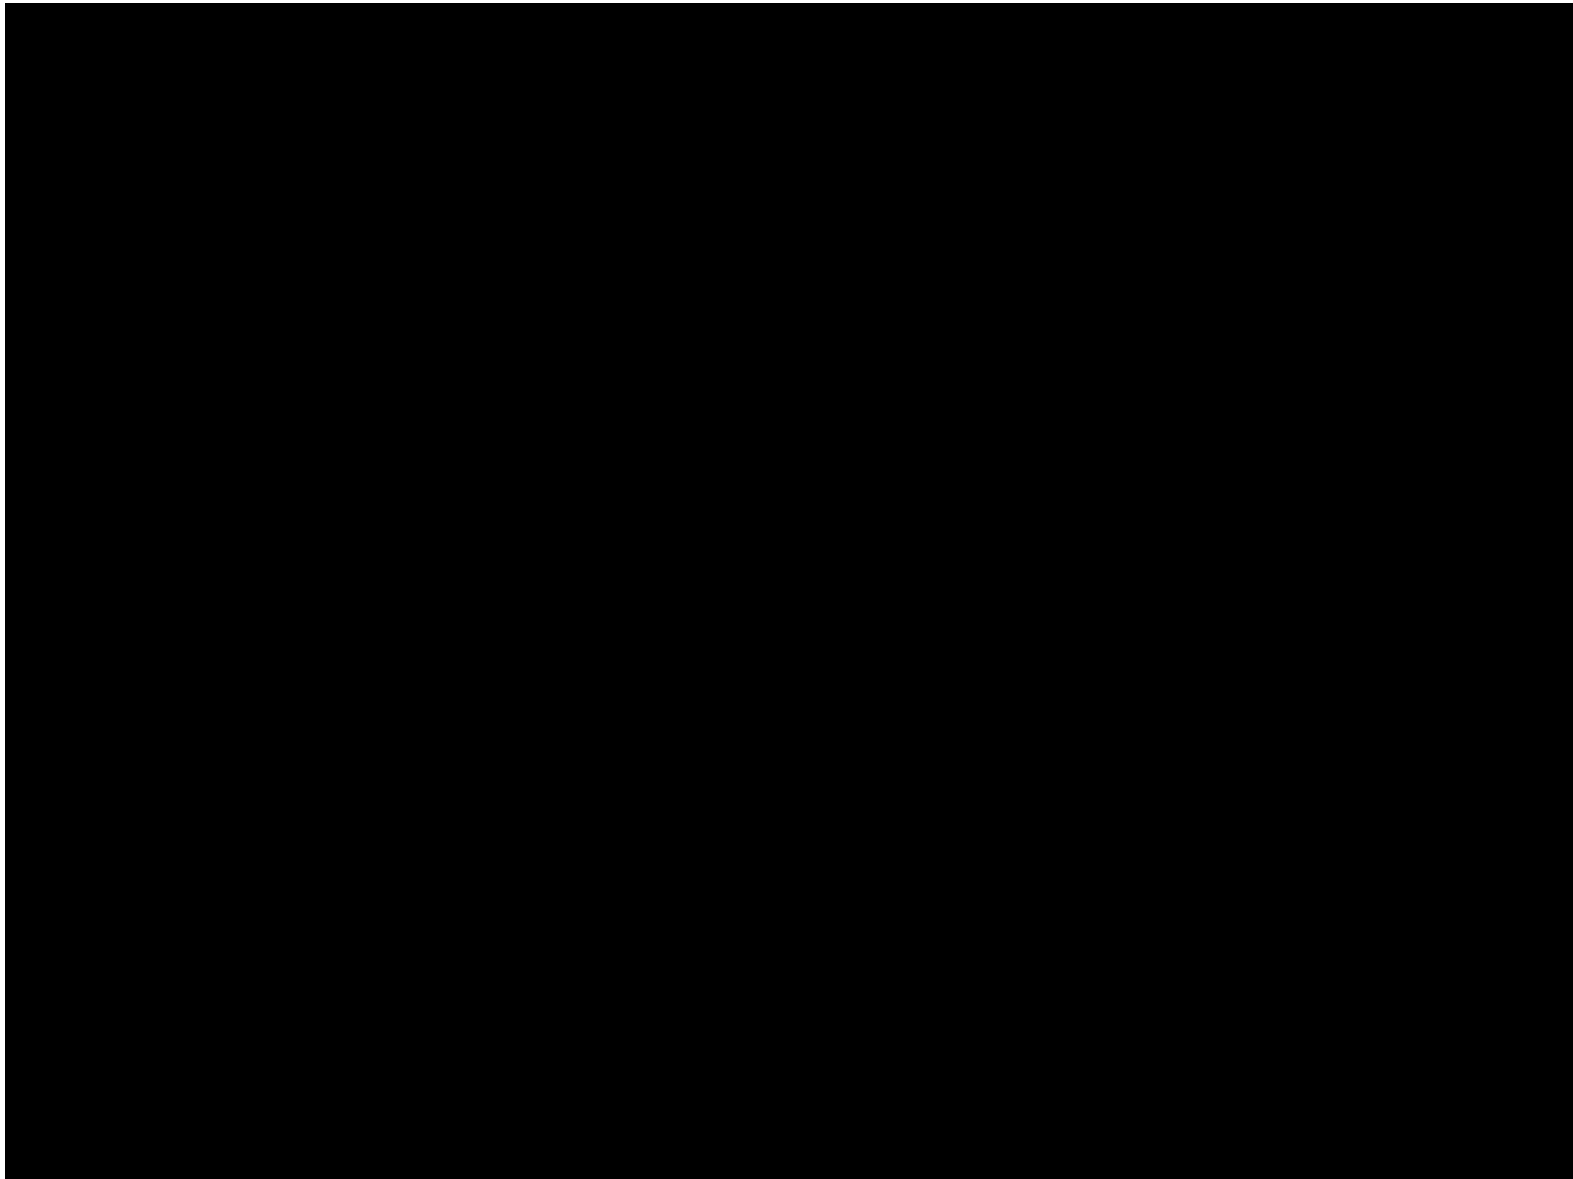

Scenarios

Live

Challenge by Choice

- Similar to firefighter recruit training
 - ✓ Engine Operations
 - ✓ Ladder Operations
 - ✓ Haz/Mat
 - ✓ Emergency Medical Services
 - ✓ Search and Rescue
 - ✓ Extrication

Fire Ops 101 Collage Video . . .

Live a Day as a Firefighter

- April 5, 2008
- Breakfast, lunch, snacks and drinks
- Education and awareness
- Demonstrations and displays
- Participative simulation exercises
- Personal attendants

Collaboration

Purpose

Planning

Execution

Scenarios

Live

Fire Ops 101 is the chance to get the decision-makers in your community to live a day as a fire fighter.

Participants put out a fire, rescue a victim, perform defibrillation on a cardiac patient—all to understand the job of a rescue worker.

QUESTIONS?

“There is no better way for public officials to learn firsthand what fire fighters and paramedics really do than to go through a program like this.”
-IAFF President Harold A. Schaitberger