Escape the cubicle. The skyline. The cabin fever. The Trinity River Corridor Project, in conjunction with the North Texas Orienteering Association is hosting an adventure hike through the Great Trinity Forest. Experienced instructors will guide participants through the new Bois d' Arc trail using a compass and a map. The adventure is free— all you have to do is register at <http://www.ntoa.com> in advance of the event. Door prizes will also be awarded.

Note: Timed participation is limited to 150 participants, so register soon. Please dress appropriately for the weather and the outdoors.
