Memorandum

CITY OF DALLAS

DATE: April 18, 2008

TO: Members of the Public Safety Committee

SUBJECT: Interlocal Agreement and Memorandum of Understanding - City of Grand Prairie

This is a proposed Memorandum of Understanding, Interlocal Agreement and Resolution addressing law enforcement operations conducted by the Dallas Police Department and the Grand Prairie Police Department within the territorial boundaries of the other city. The agreement covers the several designated service areas of the City of Dallas that adjoin the borders of the City of Grand Prairie and several areas of the City of Grand Prairie that adjoin the borders of the City of Dallas. These documents outline the notification, arrest, investigative, and case filing procedures to be followed by both police departments. This agreement enhances communication between departments and provides better services to the citizens of Dallas and Grand Prairie. This agreement is reviewed and renewed annually.

I recommend that the members of the Public Safety Committee approve the draft Interlocal Agreement, Memorandum of Understanding, and Resolution documents and refer them to the full Dallas City Council for approval.

Please feel free to contact me for clarification on any of these documents.
