SUBJECT Trinity River Corridor Project
Update on Trinity Day in Washington, D.C.

At the April 8, 2008 meeting of the Trinity River Corridor Project Committee, Chairman Neumann will provide an update of the activities on this year's Trinity Day in Washington, D.C., held on April 3, 2008. Trinity Day is a annual event in which elected officials and business and civic leaders meet with our federal delegation to inform them of the progress of the project, and to request appropriations for specific components of the project. This year's focus was on appropriations for the flood control components (Dallas Floodway Extension, Dallas Floodway Environmental Impact Statement).

If you have further questions, please let me know.
