City of Dallas' Regional Super Bowl XLV Participation – Update

City Council Briefing
August 4, 2010

Purpose

- Brief the City Council regarding the impact of Super Bowl XLV on the local economy
- Explain the State Trust Fund structure and process
- Describe the funding mechanisms for Super Bowl XLV expenses
- Seek recommendation of approval for contribution to the State Trust Fund

Background

- February 7, 2007 - City Council briefing
 - City Manager authorized to work with the Bidding Committee to bring Super Bowl XLV to the North Texas Region
- March 28, 2007 – City Council approved two resolutions in support of Super Bowl XLV
- May 22, 2007 - Super Bowl XLV awarded to the North Texas Region

Economic Impact

- February 2010 – Local Organizing Committee issued economic impact study to the State Comptroller of Public Accounts Office information upon which to make a determination of the incremental increase in tax receipts
- March 10, 2010 – Texas Comptroller of Public Accounts published its analysis of tax revenue associated with Super Bowl XLV

Incremental Tax Revenue Impact

- Local Organizing Committee Study

State	$ 36.2M
Regional	10.5M
Dallas	5.0M

- State Comptroller Determination

State	$ 26.8M
Regional	8.5M
Dallas	4.6M

State Comptroller Determination

- City of Dallas revenue impact of $4.6M

– Hotel Occupancy Tax	$ 3.149M
– Sales Tax	1.237M
– Mixed Beverage Tax	.177M
Total	$ 4.563M

Trust Fund Deposit Requirements

- Amount deposited by the State into the Trust is determined by the deposit made by the endorsing municipalities
- Each dollar deposited by endorsing municipality is matched by the State with $6.250 dollars
- The maximum increment of $26.8M requires communities to deposit $4.3M
- If communities contribute $4.3M
 - Trust Fund total will be $31M

Trust Fund Deposit Requirements

- City is to contribute $2.702M of which $1.465M will come from the Dallas Convention & Visitors Bureau
- Other participating endorsing municipalities contribute the remaining balance
- The largest portion of Dallas' tax increment impact is Hotel Occupancy Tax which is bond pledged to the Convention Center debt

City of Dallas Event Budget

● DPD	$ 2.135M
● DFD	486K
● Support Departments	229K
● Supplies & Materials	52K
● Equipment & Fuel	98K
Total Budget	$3.000M

Budget Summary

- Super Bowl XLV activities are scheduled January 27th through February 6th
- DPD expenses are primarily sworn salary and overtime costs to staff officers:
 - At the key Dallas venues, i.e., Media Center, NFL Experience, etc.
 - For deployment teams responding to incidents
 - To ensure safety and circulation in the downtown core
- DFD expenses are primarily emergency medical services and monitoring life safety issues
- Smaller amount for incremental expenses for additional fuel and supplies

Key Dallas Venues

- NFL Headquarters Hotel
 - Hilton Anatole
- NFL Fan Experience
 - Dallas Convention Center
- NFL Media Center
 - Sheraton Dallas
- NFL Commissioners Party
 - Hilton Anatole

Trust Fund Agreement

- Sets Dallas' Event Budget at $3.0M
- Establishes that Dallas Costs will be reimbursed (other than $1.237M which is offset by the sales tax increment)
- Identifies Dallas' remittance of $2.702M to the Trust Fund
 - $1.237M City of Dallas obligation
 - This is fully reimbursed by the trust fund
 - $1.465M Dallas Convention & Visitors Bureau obligation (to be deposited with the City of Dallas 75 days after the event)
- Dallas' remittance due 90 days after the event
- Establishes Dallas is to be paid on a first priority basis

Note: All incremental Hotel Occupancy Tax included in the $3.1M protected tax impact and the Mixed Beverage Tax of $177K go directly to the Convention Center

Next Steps

- City Council approval of the Event Trust Fund Agreement on August 4, 2010
